Application Form: Bunbury Storms Premier's Relief Payment

* indicates a required field

General Information

The Premier's Relief Payment provides financial assistance to eligible residents whose home was:

- located within the path of the Bunbury severe storms events on 10 May, or 1 June 2024,
- and significantly damaged or destroyed by the events.

The payment is to help cover costs for essential items, personal effects, transport and emergency accommodation,

The Premier's Relief Payment is comprised of the following:

- Full Payment: A one-off payment of $4,000 per household for eligible applicants whose home was destroyed or suffered severe damage and is uninhabitable because of the events.
- Partial Payment: A one-off payment of $2,000 per household for eligible applicants whose home suffered major damage, because of the events.

NOTE: For the purposes of this relief payment:

- Minor damage that is associated with normal seasonal storms is not eligible. This may include minor roof leaks, overflowing gutters, minor displacement of roof tiles, or damage to fences.
- A home means your usual place of residence, being the area and/or residential dwelling where a person normally lives, sleeps and eats. Residential dwellings are structures capable of long-term human habitation and include houses, apartments (or units), semi-detached or duplex homes, villas, terrace houses, townhouses, granny flats and transportable buildings.

Only one (1) relief payment will be made per household. The main occupant is the primary resident eligible to apply under this scheme.

Eligibility Criteria

All the following eligibility criteria must be met to apply:

- The applicant's home was destroyed or damaged by the Bunbury severe storm events on 10 May or 1 June 2024 (the events).
- The home was located in the path of the severe storms.
- The home was used as a usual place of residence up to 10 May 2024 for the first event, or up to 1 June 2024 of the second event.
- The applicant is the main occupant of the home.
- An application has not already been submitted on behalf of the household for the affected home for these events.
