Application Form: Parkerville Bushfire Premier's Relief Payment

* indicates a required field

General Information

The Premier's Relief Payment is available to provide financial assistance to residents whose dwelling was directly damaged or destroyed by the Parkerville Bushfire late December 2023.

Only one (1) grant payment will be made per household. The main occupant is the primary resident eligible to apply under this scheme.

For the purpose of this relief payment, a residential dwelling is a house, a unit, a park home, or any other permanent dwelling which is your usual place of residence.

The Premier's Relief Payment is comprised of the following:

- Full Payment: A one-off payment of $4,000 per dwelling for eligible applicants whose usual place of residence was destroyed or suffered major damage (rendered uninhabitable) as a result of the Parkerville Bushfire.
- Partial Payment: A one-off payment of $2,000 per dwelling for eligible applicants whose usual place of residence suffered minor damage to the home, as a result of the Parkerville Bushfire.

Eligibility Criteria

To be eligible the following criteria must be met:

- The dwelling was destroyed or damaged by the Parkerville Bushfire.
- The dwelling was located within the fire shape, as defined by DFES Mapping.
- The dwelling was used as a usual place of residence up to 22 December 2023.
- The applicant has not previously received a Premier's Relief Payment for the affected dwelling for this disaster event.
